12. Letter No. L. 2352—L. B. 221-26-5, dated 29th October 1927, from the General Secretary to Government, intimating that Government are prepared to condone the period of service which may be wanting to make up 22 years of service in the case of Mr. J. A. R. David, Sanitary Inspector to enable him to draw pension for that service or in the alternative to grant him three months' furlough from the 27th September 1927, the retirement being ordered to take effect on the expiry of this leave and the period of dificiency to be condoned being reduced to that extent, and (ii) enquiring what course the Board would prefer to adopt in the case.

Resolution.—The (2nd) Second alternative approved.

14. Cart hire bills of the Board's staff from August to November 1927, amounting to Rs. 23-12-0 for sanction.

Resolution.—Passed.

15. Travelling allowance bill of the Sanitary Board staff for October and November 1927, amounting to Rs. 4-9-6 for journeys to Kolar and other places beyond jurisdiction.

Resolution.—Passed.

16. Application of the Head Clerk, dated 22nd November 1927, praying that he may be granted six months' combined leave under Article 150 A Mysore Service Regulations, four months' privilege leave and two months' furlough on full average salary, to which he is entitled preparatory to retirement as he had not availed himself of the benefit of any kind of furlough and not more than three months' privilege leave in the aggregate, throughout his entire official career extending to 35 years.

Resolution.—Combined leave may be granted, as prayed for by the Head Clerk, taking into consideration to total service that the clerk has put in under the Sanitary Board.

The vacancy should be advertised in the Mysore Gazette as a special vacancy, for candidates who are already in Government service and who are Graduates of any University. They should also have passed Local Tests.

The Vice-President should select the candidate in consultation with Dr. Stoks H. M. A. Cooke and Mr. O. V. Rajagopal.
